		Approved For Release 2002/08/15 : CIA-RDP83-00415R00	07400170001-0 EC D 4 7
		CLASSIFICATION TO SECRET /CONTROL - U.	S OWNTOTALS ONLY
		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	REPORT NO.
		information report	co No.
O.	UNTRY	Czechoslovakia	25X1A DATE DISTR 8 Feb. 1951
ेधा	BJECT	Reorganization of Czech Army	MO. OF PAGES 1
ia ec	ACE.	25X1A	6/2 AT T10/A
	QUIRED		MO. OF ENCLS. CLISTED BELOW)
AT	E OF O.	25X1X	SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
	1.	The Czechoslovak army is apparently undergoing a reorganization. Vacancies caused by recent purges are to be filled with politically reliable persons. Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three-year training, possibly
		Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three	ee-year training, possibly
		Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service.	ee-year training, possibly
	2.	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic
		Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.*	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted.
	2.	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. re therefore mixed with iously trained troops are
		Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and another troops. Special units of unreliable but previous	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. re therefore mixed with iously trained troops are w recruits is being continued. l new equipment is under
	3.	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also previous three conditions also previous training and the conditions also previous.	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. re therefore mixed with iously trained troops are w recruits is being continued. l new equipment is under vail at the Fardubice and
	 4. 	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and arother troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevengue airfields.	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. re therefore mixed with iously trained troops are w recruits is being continued. l new equipment is under vail at the Fardubice and to Soviet standards. headquarters, possibly rs are stationed there:
	 4. 5. 	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Did German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevent airfields. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Karlov was also prevented as a seldom seen in uniform.	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. re therefore mixed with iously trained troops are w recruits is being continued. I new equipment is under vail at the Fardubice and to Soviet standards. headquarters, possibly rs are stationed there; arlovy Vary railroad con-
25X1A	3.4.5.6.	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevent airfields. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to Rest hotels at Karlovy Vary are now used as an army for the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have rebavarian border. No large concentrations of troops	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. re therefore mixed with iously trained troops are w recruits is being continued. I new equipment is under vail at the Fardubice and to Soviet standards. headquarters, possibly rs are stationed there; arlovy Vary railroad con- ecently been sent to the on the Austrian border
	 4. 6. 7. 	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive threin the USSR, and those who are judge unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Arm and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new being formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevengue airfields. Since 1 January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have reflevarian border. No large concentrations of troops have been reported to date. Comment: It cannot be determined from the priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Arm	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. The therefore mixed with iously trained troops are wrecruits is being continued. I new equipment is under vail at the Pardubice and to Soviet standards. The adquarters, possibly researe stationed there; arlovy Vory railroad concently been sent to the on the Austrian border The report whether these my or had formerly been regular
25X1A 5X1A	 4. 6. * 	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three in the USSR, and those who are judged unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevent airfields. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have rebavarian border. No large concentrations of troops have been reported to date. Comment: It cannot be determined from the priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Armmembers of this army.	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. The therefore mixed with iously trained troops are wrecruits is being continued. I new equipment is under vail at the Pardubice and to Soviet standards. The adquarters, possibly researe stationed there; arlovy Vory railroad concently been sent to the on the Austrian border The report whether these my or had formerly been regular
	 4. 6. * 	Reserve officers are to be called for extensive three in the USSR, and those who are judged unreliable are military service. Officers who had formerly served with the Czech Army and who are still of military age will be stripped of this order affects many former priests.* Slovak troops are still considered unreliable and an other troops. Special units of unreliable but previbeing formed for work in mines. The training of new Old German and new Soviet equipment is used, and all tight security controls. These conditions also prevent airfields. Since I January 1951 all insignia has been adapted to the border control command. Many Soviet officer they are seldom seen in uniform. A direct Moscow-Kanection is to be opened in March 1951. Troops stationed throughout Czechoslovakia have rebavarian border. No large concentrations of troops have been reported to date. Comment: It cannot be determined from the priests were chaplains with the Czech Republican Armmembers of this army.	ee-year training, possibly to be reindoctrinated for y of the First Republic of their ranks and drafted. The therefore mixed with iously trained troops are wrecruits is being continued. I new equipment is under vail at the Pardubice and to Soviet standards. The adquarters, possibly researe stationed there; arlovy Vory railroad concently been sent to the on the Austrian border The report whether these my or had formerly been regular

Approved For Release 2002/08/15 : CIA-RDP83-00415R007400170001-0 25X1A Approved For Release 2002/08/15 : CIA-RDP83-00415R007400170001-0